Satisfactory Academic Progress

The United States Department of Education requires that all students meet satisfactory academic progress to receive Federal Financial Aid.

Dropping a Course

If you drop a course(s), your financial aid may be canceled or reduced from funds already disbursed. You should contact the Office of Financial Aid to determine the financial impact for your specific situation. There is a $30 drop fee (per course) after the last day of Free Schedule Adjustment.

Withdrawing from a term/semester

If you withdraw before 60% of the term/semester is completed, federal regulations require the University to return a prorated amount of your Pell Grant and/or Stafford Loan to the appropriate federal account. The Office of Student Financial Services will bill the student for the amount returned. There is a $50 withdrawal fee after the last day of Free Schedule Adjustment.

Failure to Attend a Course

Class attendance is required for all students to establish eligibility for receiving financial aid. Disability Services

Who we are

The Disability Services Office provides accommodations to students with physical, psychological and learning disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Student Responsibility

While Section 504 and the ADA require postsecondary institutions to provide accommodative services to students with disabilities, once the student has been admitted to the University, it is the student's responsibility to self-identify and provide documentation of the disability. The University will not provide accommodations until the student (1) comes by The Disability Services Office and requests services, and (2) provides recent documentation of his or her disability by a qualified professional.

Examples of what we can do for you

- Determine reasonable and appropriate accommodations according to the documented disability. Accommodation letters are provided to each instructor; it only includes the appropriate accommodations. We will never disclose your medical diagnosis.
- Assist students in procuring adaptive technology and equipment as required
- Assist with the registration process, paying particular attention to areas of academic strength and weakness, so as to not overload or overwhelm the student.

Troy University's Dothan Campus offers a Lecture Capture option in some of its classes.

Here are a few of our most Frequently Asked Questions:

What is Lecture Capture? Lecture Capture is a way for you to earn your degree by watching your class live streamed from anywhere in the world.

What if I cannot watch the class at the time it is streaming?

Not a problem, you can watch it the next day as a recorded lecture.

What if I need to be in a classroom setting? If you live near the University, you can come sit in the class at the assigned time.

I don't have internet at home, but, I live near a Troy campus other than the one the class is being recorded at; can I come to that campus to watch the lecture? Please let us know that you would like to watch the lecture live at one of our campuses and if we can accommodate your request we will do so. If you are close to Fort Rucker, we will have a facility and facilitator set up for you to watch Lecture Capture classes live, please contact Carol Covington, 334-598-2443 or cycovington@troy.edu, to let her know you would like to attend on that campus.

What if I have questions? How will I get them answered? If you are watching via live stream, you can message the Professor through the system to get live feedback. If you are watching the recorded lecture, you can email your professor or post on the discussion board with any questions you may have.
